RAILWAY MEN ARE URGED TO OBSERVE LABOR DAY

Members of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen have been urged by their secretary, C. A. MacCarthy, to prepare for the Labor Day parade. Mr. Mac-Carthy called attention to the development which is daily going on in the city and feels that each member of the B. R. C. should be on hand and take an active part in the Labor Day celebration. He also points out the fact that the parade, though supplied with brass bands, flags, decorations and other things that go towards the making of a successful parade, that a complete turnout of the union men is necessary.

Mr. MacCarthy gave out the following: "The Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, Ogden Local No. 641, urgently requests that every available member be on hand at 27th and Washington promptly at 9:45 a. m. Monday, September 1st. Although speaking for all and for the sole purpose of the betterment of our support, I am speaking especially for the Order Local No. 641 of B. of R. C.
 The path that leads to glory is not strewn with roses, so come out strong Monday and let's boost a just cause to the limit."

GUNBOAT SMITH IS TO FIGHT LESTER AT EAGLES' GYM

Jack Lester and Gunboat Smith, light heavyweight fighters, will meet at the Eagles' gymnasium. E. H.
 Hayes is promoting the go and, from all indications, it will be a fast match.
 Smith has a well known record, having held the naval heavyweight title while in service.

Lester claims to have fought a terror draw with Stanley Ketchel. He will meet Kid Maxwell at Pocatello Labor Day and anticipates an easy victory.

Lester weighs 175 pounds ringside, while Smith is expected to be in the neighborhood of 180 pounds. Both men are in fair condition and the prospects for a speedy heavyweight clash are very good, according to Promoter Hayes.

ROGER VAN PELT PROBABLY WILL COACH HIGH SCHOOL TEAM THE COMING YEAR

Roger "Happy" Van Pelt, former University of Utah athletic star and one of the best athletes ever developed at the state school, is in Ogden today completing arrangements with Superintendent Karl Hopkins, whereby Van Pelt will become the new mentor at the Tiger school.

Van Pelt is recognized as one of the best athletes that ever donned athletic togs in the western country. While at the University of Utah he was a star of the first order in football, basketball and track. He also was a star with the racquet in the tennis game.
 Van Pelt captained the fast "U" eleven in 1915 and was ranked as one of the best ends that ever played in the Rocky mountain conference. During that season he played such a wonderful brand of ball that five sport critics in Colorado and Utah placed the star on the all-star team of the Rockies. Van was in every play, was death on forward passes and his tackling and general defensive work ranked with some of the greatest stars that have ever been developed in the west.

In the hop game he played the center position. Being a tall, rangy fellow, he had things his own way in Utah, in the pivot position, and scored many points for Utah. His work won him the honor of All-American center on the hoop floor, in the 1916 national championships at Chicago. Van Pelt was one of the mainstays of the University of Utah aggregation that won the world title. His accuracy with the ball, clever floor running and general passing surpassed any player in the entire country.

In track, "Hap" is a star in the hurdles, high jump, broad jump, pole vault and javelin throw. He was one of the mainstays of the "U" team while a member of the track squad and brought many points home for the crimson backers.

Van Pelt stands head and shoulders above the other candidates for the mentorship of the local school and, if the salary part of the contract can be agreed on, the crimson star will be the man at the helm when the high school opens its season.

 cessful sign painting business. The trip to Ogden was made in an automobile. This is the first visit home in Magazine to Be Published in Honor of Soldiers

Eight former newsmen of Salt Lake newspapers have been appointed by Governor Simon Bamberger to edit and govern a monthly magazine, which will be published by the state in honor of Utah's men who took part in the world war. The various American Legion posts of the state will each be well represented and it is expected that at least 10,000 copies of the first issue will be mailed to each and every service man during the month of October. The names of the men will be taken from the historic files at the state capitol in Salt Lake.

T. De Witt Foster, former city editor of the Salt Lake Telegram, has been named editor of the new magazine. J. Leo Meehan was named business manager. Le Roy Bourne, William Yeates, Clare Iglehardt, John

Holden, La Mar Nelson and Harry Ferguson comprise the editorial staff of the Salt Lake section of the paper.

Representatives in Ogden, Provo, Logan and other towns of the state will be made through the newspaper and the first edition promises to be an elaborate affair. The work of Utah's boys in the war, the work of the Red Cross, the war mothers, the various organizations of the state, and in fact every helpful phase, will be brought to light in the initial addition.

MRS. ADA GRISWOLD NAMED SECRETARY OF HOME SERVICE

Mrs. Ada Griswold has been appointed secretary of the home service section, Weber Chapter American Red Cross, and Miss Cora Smith assistant secretary. This change was made necessary by the retirement of Mrs. Ezra C. Rich, whose resignation has been in the hands of Warren L. Wattis, the director in charge of the Civilian Relief and Home Service work, for some time. Mrs. Rich served loyally and efficiently during the war and during the rather strenuous months succeeding the armistice, but felt that she could not continue to spare so much time from her home duties. Mrs.
 Griswold and Miss Smith are experienced workers, having attended courses of instruction arranged by the inter-mountain headquarters and having also had practical experience while in charge of detail work at the home service office in Ogden.

Mrs. Griswold will leave tonight for Denver to attend a conference of the mountain division officials, September 2 and 3, the occasion being a visit to that city of a number of the national officials from Washington who will discuss the home service peace time program.
